Bluestone Camp and Retreat

Parent/Guardian Waiver & Consent Form

This document requires signatures from the parent/guardian of the child(ren) who will be staying at camp and the adult the child(ren) will be staying with.

The Child Youth Protection Policy of the Presbytery of West Virginia requires that two adults be present at all activities involving children, youth, and persons with disabilities. There are specific exceptions to this policy including "when prior permission has been given by a parent/guardian concerning transportation/lodging."

Parent/Guardian - by signing this document you are giving permission for your child(ren) to travel to camp and/or stay with an adult who is unrelated to your child.

Adult Chaperone - by signing this document you are taking responsibility for the safety of the child(ren) who come to camp under your supervision.
